1. Policy Introduction

Trusted Companionship, the trading name of AI Auto-Tech Ltd, is committed to ensuring that all service users—elderly adults, disabled individuals, people with long-term conditions, and children—are treated with dignity, respect, fairness, and compassion.

This policy outlines the rights of service users receiving companionship services and ensures that all staff uphold these rights consistently, safely, and professionally.

2. Key Principles

- Respect: Every service user is treated with dignity and courtesy.
- Autonomy: Service users have the right to make choices about their lives.
- Safety: Safeguarding overrides all other considerations.
- Equality: No service user is discriminated against.
- Privacy: Personal information is protected and handled lawfully.
- Transparency: Service users receive clear information about services.
- Voice: Service users are encouraged to express views, preferences, and concerns.

3. Policy Statement

Trusted Companionship ensures that all service users:

- Are treated with dignity and respect
- Have their rights protected at all times
- Receive safe, professional companionship
- Are listened to and taken seriously
- Have access to complaints and feedback processes

- Are protected from abuse, neglect, exploitation, and discrimination
- Receive culturally sensitive and person-centred support

Companions must uphold these rights in every interaction.

4. Purpose

- Define the rights of service users
- Ensure staff understand and uphold these rights
- Strengthen safeguarding and ethical practice
- Promote trust, transparency, and accountability
- Support person-centred and relationship-centred care
- Ensure compliance with UK legislation

5. Scope

This policy applies to:

- Employees
- Volunteers
- Contractors
- Agency workers
- Zero-contract workers (PRN-149)

It covers service user rights in:

- Private homes
- Community settings
- Digital environments
- Transport
- Overnight companionship
- Holiday companionship
